MARCO PONTI

WALKING SHADOW

A supernatural tale for those who enjoyed Stranger Things

SALES ARGUMENTS:

- Internationally acclaimed movie director
- A scary story
- An outstanding friendship oblivious of the differences

Frederic has just arrived in Turin from Los Angeles and he is not happy about the move: his parents are on the verge of separation, while at school, he is busy trying to avoid the attentions of relentlessly unwelcoming boys who bully him. As if that were not enough, he lives in a haunted house. One evening he mistakenly frees the ghost of a powerful but frightened boy, Camillo. A deep friendship develops between eternal life and thwart the deadly attacks of the Shadows. Frederic must accept his new life and find his place with his friends, family and the world. Together they will defeat their enemies by completing an impossible mission.

MARCO PONTI has written and directed nine films for the cinema, including the cult movie Santa Maradona (winner of two David di Donatello) and two films from Luca Bianchini's novels: Io che amo solo te and La cena di Natale. He has directed various documentaries and short features, working with Vasco Rossi, Lorenzo Jovanotti, Emma Marrone, Elisa and Giuliano Sangiorgi, Italian music stars.

"What an adventure this story is! It is perfect for those who believe in the wonderful.
And even more for those who have yet to believe in it."

FABIO GEDA

"Suddenly I found myself a friend with a ghost and a gang of irresistible kids"
